By Car

• From the North (M1 J7)

- Come off M1 at J7 which flows straight onto the M10
- After 3 miles you will reach the Park Street Roundabout - take the first exit onto the A5183
- Follow this road until you get to a mini-roundabout with the King Harry pub on it, turn right here
- After the King Harry pub, go down the hill, go across one large roundabout and then go up the hill until you get to traffic controlled cross roads where the Peahen pub is situated; turn right here
- After 200m, turn right by A Plan insurance into a public car park – we have dedicated spaces in this car park which we will tell you about on booking
- Once parked, retrace your steps, going back towards the cross roads where the Peahen pub is situated
- The White Rooms are located about 20 metres before the crossroads at Number 6 (next to a jewellers called 'The Shop on the Hill')

• From the South (M1 J6 and M25 J21a)

- Come off the motorway and turn left signed St. Albans
- At next roundabout, (see the Thistle hotel), take the first exit
- Follow this road and go straight over all mini-roundabouts including the second set with the King Harry pub on your left
- After the King Harry pub, go down the hill, across one large roundabout and then go up the hill until you get to traffic controlled cross roads where the Peahen pub is situated – turn right here
- After 200m, turn right by A Plan insurance into a public car park – we have dedicated spaces in this car park which we will tell you about on booking

- Once parked, retrace your steps going back towards the cross roads where the Peahen pub is situated
